

HealAdvisor Animal Module

Healy IMF Programs for Your Animal!

Many people consider their animals to be among the best friends in their life. We always want only the best for our animal, we want to care for and protect it. But in everyday life it may be exposed to many negative influences: Environmental conditions and manifestations of aging can impair its performance and vitality.

The Healy Animal programs are designed to harmonize the Bioenergetic Field of horses, dogs, cats and other animals. In fact, microcurrent applications have been used on animals for decades. Based on these experiences we decided to include the 12 most popular Individualized Microcurrent Frequency (IMF) programs for animals as a separate module in the HealAdvisor app: the HealAdvisor Animal Module.

To help you decide which Healy IMF program is appropriate for your animal, the Animal Module of the HealAdvisor App will guide you step by step.

The HealAdvisor Animal Module can harmonize your animal's Bioenergetic Field in a simple, versatile and holistic way. It is designed to promote calmness and provide inner strength.

One device for both humans and animals.

- 12 Healy IMF programs for animals.
- Quick and easy HealAdvisor Assistant, helping you to find the right recommendation for a Healy IMF program.
- Handy accessories available for quick and practical application: electrodes that are inserted into the moist applicator sponges and then fastened to the animal with the retaining straps.
